

JACK TEEAR
ONE WEST EXCHANGE STREET
OMNI DOME BUILDING
THIRD FLOOR
PROVIDENCE, RI 02903
(401) 383-7355

Jack Teear is Associate Director of Research and Monitoring in the Providence, Rhode Island office. He conducts research and analysis of issues affecting clients in their representation before various municipalities, the 50 state attorneys general, six U.S. territories, governors, and federal and state legislative leadership and compiles updates for clients and associations.

Mr. Teear also maintains a daily presence at the Rhode Island Legislature, acting as direct liaison between clients and the Legislature's Leadership and committee members.

Prior to joining Hogan Law Associates LLC, Mr. Teear was a researcher at the Rhode Island State Archives. He also worked as a communications campaign staffer for the Rhode Island Federation of Teachers and Health Professional, writing literature for candidates running for local and statewide office.

Mr. Teear is a 2013 graduate of the University of Derby in the United Kingdom and studied American Government and History at Keene State College.