

MARILYN T. LYNCH
1333 H STREET, NW
SUITE 500, WEST TOWER
WASHINGTON, DC 20005
(202) 390-3967

Marilyn T. Lynch is Managing Director of the Washington, DC office of Hogan Law Associates LLC. Ms. Lynch represents and advises national and multi-national clients in federal and state regulatory and compliance matters, multi-jurisdiction litigation strategy, and consumer protection and product safety matters. Ms. Lynch represents clients before federal agencies, attorneys general of the 50 states, six U.S. Territories and the District of Columbia, state attorneys general associations, governors, and state legislative leadership on a variety of complex issues and initiatives.

Prior to joining Hogan Law Associates, Ms. Lynch served as Counsel with Dickstein Shapiro LLP, an AmLaw 200 national law firm, for 14 years where she worked closely with a multitude of Fortune 200 and 500 clients, in the national and international arena, providing strategic counsel in a multidisciplinary setting to successfully advance the business interests of her clients. Ms. Lynch has and continues to partner with other national firms to advance such client interests in complex commercial litigation matters.

Ms. Lynch has extensive experience in all phases of complex commercial litigation, with an emphasis in antitrust litigation on behalf of plaintiffs, through her representation of over 150 Fortune 200 and 500 companies as direct liaison counsel in large national and multi-state antitrust direct action litigation, including In re Vitamins Litigation, In re Citric Acid Antitrust Litigation, In re High Fructose Antitrust Litigation, In re Methionine Antitrust Litigation, In re Linerboard Antitrust Litigation, and In re Urethane Antitrust Litigation. Ms. Lynch served as class plaintiffs' liaison counsel in In re Exxon Valdez Oil Spill Litigation, specializing in the damages phase which involved over 20,000 claimants. She also has extensive experience in national and multinational contract negotiations and general corporate matters, augmentation and enforcement of corporate policies, codes of conduct, and training.

For the last ten years, Ms. Lynch has served appointments to various committees of the District of Columbia Bar, currently as a member of the Bar's Nominations Committee and previously as a member of the Elections Committee and as chair and member of the Bar's Membership Committee. Ms. Lynch also has served as an adjunct faculty member for Georgetown University's School for Continuing Studies, instructing graduate students on real estate law, principles, and procedure.

For over eight years, Ms. Lynch served as her firm's liaison and team leader with the District of Columbia Bar, in connection with the firm's pro bono partnership in the Bar's Landlord-Tenant Resource Center and the Advocacy Justice Program. In this role and on behalf of her firm, Ms. Lynch received the Bar's Frederick B. Abramson Award.

Ms. Lynch also was awarded her firm's Justin D. Simon Core Values Award, for her firm's core values of excellence, loyalty, respect, initiative, and integrity.

For more than 12 years, Ms. Lynch served as President, Director, and Board Member for Doing Small Miracles for Others, a Washington-based philanthropic organization serving over 30 organizations dedicated to serving the communities in the Washington metropolitan area.

Ms. Lynch clerked for the Honorable Martha G. Kavanaugh, Associate Judge with the Circuit Court for the Sixth Judicial District of Maryland. Prior to her judicial clerkship, Ms. Lynch served as Judicial Intern for the Honorable J. James McKenna, also of the Sixth Judicial District of Maryland, and as Judicial Extern for the Honorable Daniel J. Kremer, Presiding Justice for the Court of Appeal of California, Division One, including primary responsibility for drafting a published opinion involving a case of first impression in the State of California. Prior to her service with such trial and appellate courts, Ms. Lynch served as Research Assistant and Editor to two tenured law professors while at the University of San Diego School of Law, including a published trial lawyers manual.

Prior to attending law school, Ms. Lynch served as Legislative Intern and Writer for the U.S. Senate's Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, under then Subcommittee Chair Senator Bill Roth, and as Legislative Intern for Senator Lewis Riley for the 38th District of Maryland. For the U.S. Senate, Ms. Lynch researched, investigated, and drafted committee memoranda on domestic and foreign corruption, centered on organized crime, including reports that were ultimately presented on air on Dateline NBC. For the Senate of Maryland, Ms. Lynch served as constituent-district liaison, and researched, drafted, and testified on district legislation.

Ms. Lynch earned her J.D. from the University of San Diego School of Law in 1995, where she served as class representative and faculty liaison, attended Oxford University during law school as a pupil of Magdalen College's Institute on International and Comparative Studies in 1994, with Highest Honors, attended Georgetown University as a graduate student of the pre-law Paralegal Studies Program from 1992 to 1993. She earned her B.A., in English and Government & Politics, from the University of Maryland at College Park in 1992, cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, where she served as a member of the Honor Council, Secretary of the Senior Class and Presenter of the Senior Class Gift, and served as Vice President - Scholarship for her national women's fraternity, Delta Gamma.

Ms. Lynch resides in Bethesda, Maryland with her husband Ehren Federowicz and their three daughters Jacqueline, Ashley and Caitlin (ages 10, 9 and 8) who attend St. Bartholomew School in Bethesda. She enjoys sailing excursions with her family, cooking with her daughters, event planning, all things real estate, travel, and wine.